Biographical Sketch

After completing my M.Phil in English from University of Delhi I have registered myself as a Ph.D Research Scholar at Jadavpur University in 2018. I completed M.A. from EFLU (English & Foreign Languages University).

Areas of Specialisation and Research

I specialise in Performance Studies and Cultural Studies where I try to nuance the idea of body language as a part of human behavior and body language as a technique learnt for acting, along with the other communication processes involved in a 'performance.'
