

Hall of fame

■ NEW TOWN: Father Felix Raj, vice-chancellor of St Xavier's University, was inducted into the Management Accounting Hall of Fame by the Institute of Certified Management Accountants (ICMA) for his contribution and lifetime achievement in the field of education and management. Brendon O'Connell, ICMA's global president, and Chris D'Souza, chief operating officer of the organisation, presented him the award at a conference on Frontiers In Accounting held on the New Town campus of St Xavier's University on Monday.